1 tell us. Where were you incarcerated?

2 A I received a three-year conviction on 3 March the 24th, 1987 before Judge John Prevas. I
4 was sent to the Maryland -- to Maryland
5 Correctional Training Center in Hagerstown,
6 Maryland. I was placed on what is called the 7 Juvenile Tier in housing unit 6. My counselor's
8 name back then was Counselor Baker, B-A-K-E-R. I
9 got released -- I got released around April,
10 between March and April of 1989. So there was no
11 way that I could have been on the scene to be a 12 witness to somebody getting shot.

13 So with that, that's enough to show that 14 I did not -- and another reason why I would not 15 have participated in any affidavit. Because there
16 was no way I could have witnessed somebody
17 shooting or fighting or any of that. That's why I 18 say you guys want to let this one go.

19 Q At the time you were a juvenile?

20 A At the age of 17 -- I was 17. I was 21 still considered a juvenile under the Constitution
22 under the Redford case, that I was not an adult
